Principal Report – No report this evening. Thank you all for coming.

Treasurer Report – Review of events on the budget. Stef is not in attendance this evening, please see the budget sheet for questions.

Secretary Report – Review of Jan. Meeting Minutes. Motion to Approve: Rebecca Kuzar and Amanda Walters

Review of finished and upcoming events:

APRIL – We will be voting in a new Treasurer and VP for 3 year terms. Nominations to be complete by March and voting will be at the April meeting. We would like the new treasurer to have additional time to work with Stef.

Homeroom Parent (Jess Claycomb) – Valentine’s Day Parties - Snack is on the site. Drink will be water.

Read- a-thon – Rebecca and Mandi – www.read-a-thon.com Kick-off Feb. 22; will run Feb 26-March 11. The kickoff will include some games and activities. Looking for students to have 15 reading sessions and a goal to raise $35. We have had several donors cover all the prizes – cookies from Thomahawk, slushies from Go Moore, etc. If the students reach their goal, the teachers and Mrs. Rosa will dress like leprechauns! We received $750 in donations from the Polish Falcons and Riggs Industries.

- We are also going to bring back “DEAR – Drop Everything And Read” time during the school day to encourage a love of reading and allow students to carry around their favorite book.
- This year’s theme is READ FOR GOLD.

Spring Spirit Sale – Waiting for update. We should have that ready to send home soon.

STEAM Fair – Grades 3-5, New date: May 3rd. If you work in a STEAM related field, we would like to have more volunteers. We would like to have eight or more tables and the students rotate through the tables to complete activities. They spend seven minutes at each table.
